

Who we are...

The Hunt Valley Business Forum (HVBF) is a member driven organization of business professionals who have an interest in the issues and concerns of Hunt Valley and the surrounding areas. Our goal is to address a broad range of educational and advocacy issues on a timely basis. Listed below are our Educational Roundtables which meet once a month, or quarterly.

Human Resource Roundtable:

- Focus: Explore current issues affecting employer-employee relationships, compliance issues and other topics of mutual concern.
- Who Attends: HR Professionals

Facilities, Security and Transportation Roundtable:

- Focus: US Leed Certification, Energy Cost Containment, Identity Theft, Transportation issues in Hunt Valley, promote tours of member businesses
- Who Attends: Commercial Real Estate Professionals, Energy Experts, Security and Transportation Executives

“The HVBF keeps me connected with peers in our clients’ organizations – very helpful for feedback and direction.”

– Maury Weinstein, Co-owner System Source

“HVBF is a quality organization of business people with strong leadership at the top.”

– Chip Lewis, Managing Director
PSA Insurance & Financial Services

Financial Roundtable:

- Focus: Succession Planning, Charitable Giving, Tax Strategies, Executive Benefits
- Who Attends: Bankers, Business Owners, CFO's, Comptrollers, CPA's, Financial Advisers, and Lawyers

Information Technology Roundtable:

- Focus: Create synergies between business and technology to positively impact the bottom line.
- Who Attends: IT Consultants, System Educators, Practitioners, IT Team Developers

Partners in Progress Roundtable:

- Focus: Seminars that address specific interests not included in our scheduled roundtables
- Who Attends: Business Professionals interested in a specific topic of presentation.

Women in Business:

- Focus: Educational Roundtables and networking events.
- Who Attends: Business Professionals

Who Can Become A Member

Any business who does business or has an interest in Hunt Valley is welcome to join the HVBF. The membership is listed under the business name; so any employee of the participating company can enjoy the benefit of attending any HVBF roundtable or event. Guests may attend one roundtable/event before joining HVBF.

How to Join

- Visit our website hvbf.org
- Fill out the “How to Join” form
- An invoice will follow

Member Benefits

- List your company information on our website.
- Interact with business professionals to develop relationships of mutual interest.
- Be proactive on business development issues in the Hunt Valley area, and supported in approved advocacy issues.
- Participate in any HVBF roundtable or event
- Be a sponsor, speaker or panel member of our roundtables/events.
- Be an event or breakfast sponsor, allowing the company to be featured with publicity.
- Opportunity to support legacy outreach to the Hunt Valley community.

www.hvbf.org

Hunt Valley Business Forum

Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure

Photo by Bob Stockfield

Our Vision

The Hunt Valley Business Forum endeavors to be the voice serving businesses and professionals in the north Baltimore area.

Our Mission

The mission of the Hunt Valley Business Forum is to educate and advocate for our members on current issues of common concern.

"As an independent business owner the HVBF keeps me informed on the changing economic climate. It also helps solidify the corporate and commercial community upon which the Hunt Valley community is built."

— Steve Spaud, Vice President Greetings and Readings

Hunt Valley Business Forum is good for your business and your business is good for Hunt Valley.

P.O. Box 1322
Hunt Valley, Maryland 21030
410-299-3384
director@hvbf.org
www.hvbf.org

Hunt Valley Business Forum

www.hvbf.org

One voice for the business community since 1990